Seniors Centre Without Walls In Home Care & Assistance

Mom needed "A Little Extra Help." And when I was looking for a caregiver to help my mom, - I worried, "Would they be safe, honest, and compassionate and would they treat my mom with respect and dignity?" We were fortunate to find caregivers that did meet all that and I did not have to worry. My mom was in good hands. They earned my trust and cared for my mom with respect, dignity, and kindness.

Our Story

I was privileged to be a caregiver for my mom and dad. Mom lived with Dementia but she retained her sense of humour and her desire to care for people and animals. It was important to me that she be treated with dignity and respect.

Mom lived on the farm and her greatest wish was to remain in her own home, as she aged. To do this, mom needed a little extra help.

As mom's Alzheimer's progressed, we were fortunate to have great caregivers to give mom that extra help. These ladies cared for mom with compassion and kindness.

Caregivers helped mom remain in her own home when it became too much for her to manage, on her own. Mom felt happy and safe in her own familiar surroundings and she loved having the companionship of her caregivers.

My dad was a caring person who worked hard and always helped others. Dad taught me, "You always lend a hand and you do it with dignity, respect, and understanding."

I am proud to take the values that my parents taught me and offer compassionate care service to the community, in honour of my mom and dad.

We hope in some small way we can make your life easier.
