

ART CLASSES BY PHONE

with the Moose Jaw Museum & Art Gallery's Education Coordinator, Christy Schweiger

Thursdays from 10:00 am - 11:00 am

- September 22 – Exploring colour with pencil crayons (primary colours)
- September 29 – Exploring colour with watercolours (secondary and tertiary colours and learning about the colour wheel)
- October 20 – Exploring colour with acrylic paint (symmetrical drawings and colour balancing)
- October 27 – Pencil crayon gradation
- November 17 – Edward Poitras gallery tour and pointillism activity inspired by MJMAG Indigenous beadwork collection
- November 24 – Pen and ink drawing
- December 15 – Fun with air dry clays at home
- December 22 – Christmas clay ornament decoration with acrylic paints

This free program is open to anyone in Saskatchewan age 55 and over. Pre-registration required. Join from your own home - on your phone in a conference call format. All supplies mailed to you at no cost. Maximum of 20 people. Register before September 1 to receive your kit.

SENIORS' CENTRE WITHOUT WALLS SASKATCHEWAN

To register for this program, phone 306-631-4357 or email swwsask@gmail.com